The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 3, to Saturday December 7, 1751.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21st of January, O. S.}}{\text{1st of February, N. S.}}$ in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the forefaid Sand Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majesty's Privy-Purse, the 25th October 1751.

Whitehall, December 7.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Joshua Van Neck, of Putney, in the County of Surry, Esq; The Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain.

Rome, Nov. 23. A few Days ago a secret Consistory was held at the Quirinal, at which the Pope and many Cardinals assisted, when the Abbe Mastrandre's Qualifications for accepting the Bishoprick of Vico in the Kingdom of Naples, were approved, and he was accordingly confirmed in the same. The Court of Madrid has caused a Bank to be established in this City for the advancing to the Spanish Ecclesiasticks such Sums of Money as they may want for paying Fees to the Datary, which they have hitherto been obliged to borrow at the extravagant Rate of Six per Cent. The Ceremony of the Beatification of Maria Francisca de Chantal, Foundress of the Order of the Visitation, will be performed To-morrow with great Solemnity in the Church belonging to that Order. The Marquess de Malespine, Minister from the King of the Two Sicilies to the Court of Dresden, arrived here some Days ago, and will in a Day or two continue his Journey for Naples. Cardinal Landi having resolved to spend the Remainder of his Days in Retirement, is daily expected to resign his Archbishoprick of Benevento, but it is not said as yet who is like to succeed him in that rich Benefice.

Franckfort, Dec. 3. The Elector of Mayence is still at Aschaffembourg, and intends staying there till the 15th Instant, when he proposes coming to this City for the Winter. Several private Letters from Strasbourg say, that the Magazines of that City had been lately filled with great Quantities of Corn; but the general Opinion was, that it was only brought thither in order to be shipped for the French Settlements in America.

Dusseldorp, Dec. 9. Most of the Members who compose the Diet of the States of Juliers and Bergues, are already arrived in this City, and will open their Assembly in a few Days. M. Ammon, the King of Prussia's Resident at Cologn, and Directorial Councillor of the Circle of the Lower Rhine, being expected here To-day or To-morrow to assist thereat. We learn from Bonn, that the Elector of Cologn has conferred on M. Browmann, the Place

Place of Director of the Chamber of Finances, in the Room of Baron Frankenbourg. The ſame Advices add, that it was generally reported, that his Electoral Highneſs intended ſhortly to take a Tour to Munich.

Advertiſements.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of his Majeſty's Royal Letters Patent, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

Theſe Powders are ſold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy them for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

N. B. Attendance is given by Mr. Newbery or his Agents at the Amſterdam Coffee-houſe near the Royal Exchange, every Day from Twelve till Two, to receive Orders for Exportation.
